

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| SUSANNE WEIGELIN-SCHWIEDRZIK | |
| Preface..... | 7 |
| SUSANNE WEIGELIN-SCHWIEDRZIK AND NELE NOESSELT | |
| Striving for Symmetry in Partnership: An Analysis of Sino-EU Relations Based on the Two Recently Published Policy Papers | 11 |
| A. TOM GRUNFELD | |
| The Advantages and Perils of Globalization: The Case of Tibet | 35 |
| JUDITH HUFNAGEL | |
| Dangerous Liaisons: Looking at the Triangle between Taiwan, the United States, and the People’s Republic of China from an International Law Perspective | 61 |
| MARGARETA GRIESZLER | |
| Imperial Death Ritual and International Relations: The Unprecedented Participation of the Diplomatic Corps at the Mourning Services in Late Imperial China | 83 |
| XU XIAOQUN | |
| Negotiating Western Models and Chinese Practices: Judicial Reform in the Late Qing “New Policy”, 1901–1911 | 99 |
| DONALD JORDAN | |
| China’s National Economic Council and the League of Nations Experts, 1929 – 1937..... | 123 |
| JOHN K. T. CHAO | |
| The Question of Chinese Representation in the UN..... | 133 |
| WANG DONG | |
| The Dissemination of International Law and the Study of the Unequal Treaties in China | 169 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| AGNES SCHICK-CHEN | |
| The Conceptualization of ' fazhi ' – Towards a 'Rule of Law' in China? | 195 |
| Contributors | 209 |