

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	7
WALDEMAR ZACHARASIEWICZ & HERTA NAGL-DOCEKAL
Introduction	9
PART I: The Medical “Grand Tour” to Europe and Nineteenth-Century Cooperation in the Spheres of Education and Natural History
	23
WALDEMAR ZACHARASIEWICZ
The Debate on Reforms in Education and Academic Institutions in Nineteenth-Century America	25
CARMEN BIRKLE
The Medical Grand Tour: American Physicians In and Out of Europe	47
CHRISTOPH IRMSCHER
“In Gedanken in Amerika”: The Evolution of Franz Steindachner	79
PART II: Political Relations between the USA and Europe before and after World War II
	107
TIBOR FRANK
The Blind Eyewitness: Joseph E. Davies, U.S. Ambassador to Moscow (1936–1938)	109
PHILIPP GASSERT
One World, Or War? Politics, Science, and Popular Culture in the Transatlantic Resistance to the Cold War	139

PART III: Transatlantic Exchanges between Philosophy, Literature and Film Theory since the 1970s	165
GERTRUDE POSTL Continental Postmodernisms in the USA and Canada: The Mediating Role of the International Association for Philosophy and Literature (IAPL)	167
LUDWIG NAGL Philosophy, Psychoanalysis and Melodrama: Stanley Cavell on Max Ophuls' Screen Version of Stefan Zweig's Short Story Briefe einer Unbekannten	183
STEPHEN BURNS A Philosopher Crosses the Atlantic: Peter Winch on Philosophy and Ethics	205
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	219
INDEX	223